CORAM: A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
2.8.2007

PC:

Heard parties.

Vinayak Mahadeo Deo and his son instituted a suit for possession and mesne profits against plaintiff No.1's daughter and son-in-law. Suit came to be decreed. In an appeal preferred by present respondent the First Appellate Court allowed the appeal and decreed the counter claim. Aggrieved thereby present second appeal has been filed which has been admitted. The appellant makes a grievance that relying upon the appellate judgment the respondents have moved application before the various authorities with a view to have their names mutated in place of the names of the appellant and thus seeks stay of direction Nos.4 and 5 issued in the judgment of the First Appellate Court. Hence I grant interim stay to direction Nos. 4 and 5 in the operative part of the judgment of the First Appellate Court. Civil Application stands disposed of.
